6. (Confidential - CEA) In the absence of Jay Sourwine, I informed Jack Norpel, Research Director, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, that the Agency has no information on [REDACTED] other than that which has already been publicized in the newspapers. Norpel said he would pass this to Sourwine.

8. (Secret - JGO) Met with Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and briefed him on several items of current intelligence interest. I also talked to him about the current Committee hearings on Department of Defense intelligence activities. (See Memoranda for the Record.)

9. (Secret - JGO) Received a call from [REDACTED] Chief [REDACTED] who advised that the Department of Army will be responding today to a question posed to General Betts in executive session concerning the present location of the MIL-10. Reference to the vehicle will be deleted from the transcript approved for publication. It is anticipated that a copy of the transcript will be available to us later in the week. (See Journal item of 11 March 1970.)
